Almaty City
Department of Education:

This letter confirms that Global Education and Training (GET) and the Intensive English Institute (IEI) at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, which I oversee as Director of Global Education and Training, is working collaboratively with the Department of Education of Almaty City to provide educational and training programs.

Our collaboration works to establish programs including, but not limited to:

1. Teacher training
2. Higher Education administration training
3. Faculty/Staff professional development
4. Program-based partnerships
5. Joint Development of ongoing and new curricula and academic projects

If I can be of any further assistance, or provide you with additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Matthew A. Rosenstein, Ph.D.
Director, Global Education and Training
